

2019 Kansas State Chess Championship

Saturday, March 9, 2019

Emporia State University – Memorial Union

100 East 14th Avenue, Emporia, KS

Open to any student of a Kansas School or Kansas student resident

Qualifications:

All players must meet KSCA Eligibility requirements. Info: KSCA Eligibility

K-12, K-8, K-5, K-3: Must play in at least two KSCA rated tournaments.

In the Title section in the KSCA database you will have the following:

“Q” = qualified (2 tournaments) “P” = partially qualified (1 tournament)

Registration:

Online registration for qualified players via the KSCA website or by clicking here KSCA online state registration page by noon, 12:00pm, Sunday, March 3, 2019. No on-site registration.

Please only register after you have qualified for state. If you are using a Saturday March 2nd chess tournament to qualify, you may register after the tournament is over. Players who have a “Q” under their Title “Ttl” are qualified.

Please check the database for current status. Please note the database will not be updated for March 2nd tournaments but will be for Monday for posting of sections. Any player who registers as a new player will be deleted from the registration.

Attention to K-3 players: This year’s KSCA K-3 section will be JTP USCF rated. You must have USCF ID number beside your name. Those that do not have ID number must fill out this USCF membership form and bring it to registration or you can fill out online at K-3 JTP Online Form. An USCF ID number is required to participate in this section.

Attention to K-12 players: This year’s KSCA K-12 section will be USCF rated. You must have a current U.S. chess membership that is good until March 31, 2019 (2019-03-31). Use this to check your membership status: USCF Player Search. Those that do not have a current US Chess membership must fill out this form USCF membership form and bring it to registration or you can fill out online at K-12 USCF membership form. A current US Chess membership is required to participate in this section.
